THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the Tarboro' Southerner.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The Convention of the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of North Carolina has resolved to hold its next annual meeting in Tarboro', on the first Wednesday in May, 1868. At that Convention an Assistant Bishop is to be elected for this Diocese.—These facts recall some interesting reminiscences of "the olden time" in connection with the Church in this State, which may not be uninteresting to your readers. The Convention which elected the first Bishop of North Carolina was held in this place on the 28th day of May, 1794. The Church in this State organized itself into a Diocese in 1792, and sent deputies to the General Convention held in New York in September of that year.

Previous to the General Convention of 1795, an effort was made to obtain the Episcopal succession for this Diocese, and a Convention was held for that purpose in Tarboro', to elect a suitable person for the office of Bishop, as will appear by the following copy of a document recorded in the history of the Church.

"We, the subscribers, having met in Convention, at Tarborough, North Carolina, on the 28th. day of May, 1794, for the purpose of considering the declining situation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this State, and having chosen the Rev. Charles Pettigrew as a person fit to be our Bishop, and worthy to be recommended for consecration to that holy office—but being sensible that the great distance at which the laity as well as the clergy of the State live from each other, deprives us of sufficient personal acquaintance with one another to subscribe a testimonial in the words prescribed by the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, have thought it necessary and proper to make some deviation therefrom, which we presume to hope will be no obstacle to our laudable pursuit. We therefore do hereby recommend to be consecrated to the office of Bishop the said Rev. Charles Pettigrew, whom, for his morality, religious principles, piety of life, from his general reputation in a clerical character, from the personal knowledge we have of him, and from his sufficiency in good learning and soundness in the faith, we are induced to believe worthy of being consecrated to that important office. We hereby promise and engage to receive him as such when canonically consecrated and invested therewith; and to render that canonical obedience which we believe to be necessary to the due and proper discharge of so important a truth in the Church of Christ. And we address the Right Reverend, the Bishops in the several United States, praying their united assistance in consecrating this our said brother, and canonically investing him with the apostolic office and powers.

In testimony whereof, we hereunto subscribe our names, the day and year above written.

Clergy—N. Blount, J. S. Wilson, J. Gurley, S. Halling, R. J. Miller.

Laity—J. Leigh, M. D., J. Guin, M. D., R. White, Lawyer, R. Woods, Lawyer, W. Clements, L. Desseaux, W. Grimes, R. Godly."

The Rev. Charles Pettigrew, thus elected to the office of a Bishop, set off to attend the General Convention of 1795, which was to be held in the city of Philadelphia, in the month of September, with a view to his consecration, but was prevented from prosecuting his journey by the prevalence of an epidemic fever in Norfolk, which had suspended the accommodations for traveling. Before another opportunity for his consecration occurred the Bishop elect died. After the long interval of 74 years, "the Church of our forefathers" proposes again to assemble her representatives, clerical and lay, in this place, and to elect on the spot where she elected her first Bishop, an assistant to her present venerated Diocesan, to carry on that work of the Lord, which is growing too great for one to do.

We anticipate for that meeting of Convention such a gathering of the Church and such a social and spiritual blessing for our community, by the interchange of hospitality and religious acts and influences, as will make it long to be remembered in the history of our flourishing town.

The election yesterday for city and ward officers passed off without an open outbreak during the day, although there was much excited feeling from morning till night. Many of our citizens were not without fears that violent conduct would be witnessed during the day, but, happily, their fears were not well founded, as the sequel proved: and the first experiment at negro suffrage in the city of Washington was not attended with overt acts of violence. The law-abiding character of our old citizens was fully demonstrated in the manner in which they submitted to the most glaring wrongs. Hustled from the polls, as many of them were, by negroes fresh from the corn fields of Virginia, and by pensioners upon the bounty of the Freedmen's Bureau, they successfully quelled any angry passions, and never so much as contemplated a resort to violence.—National Intelligencer, 4th.

Rev. Dr. Dabney, author of the Life of General (Stonewall) Jackson, is preparing a new work in defence of his native State, Virginia, and of the South. He has devoted much time and research to this treatise, and has collected much novel and instructive information for the vindication of the southern people. The Radical questions in debate are subjected to a thorough and searching inquiry. It is highly praised by eminent statesmen who have seen the proof-sheets. It will be published within a few weeks by Messrs. E. J. Hale & Son, 16 Murray street, New York.—New York World.

THE KENTUCKY ELECTIONS.—Prominent Kentucky politicians of the Radical school have consulted with some of the members of the Judiciary Committee, regarding the validity of the late elections in that State. They were advised to collect full evidence in various districts showing the impunity with which ex-rebels voted, all leading facts connected with the election, and also a record of the opposition candidates during the war. This is to be brought to the notice of the Committee on Elections at the next session of Congress. It is understood that immediate steps will be taken to prepare such evidence.

It appears from this that Congress is to receive Radical representatives from Kentucky, or Kentucky will not be represented at all. Such is "Liberty."

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS

MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that predominate or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE.

Much as we admire truly Republican institutions, we were never sufficiently Democratic to desire universal suffrage. A written Constitution, and a free ballot of only the substantial voters of the country, are the true bulwarks of civil liberty and the great safe-guards of the Republic. Anarchy and despotism are the sure results of either an unlimited Monarchy or an unlimited Democracy. But the fates seem to be driving us to a consolidated, universal and unlimited Democracy, without a written Constitution, to be controlled only by the "higher law,"—the will of the people.—It is important, therefore, that statesmen should look ahead, in order to provide, if possible, against the total wreck of human liberty, which such a tendency portends.

Education, alone, is not a safe-guard to human rights. Public and private virtue, guided by intelligence and held in check by the interest which every man and woman has in the prosperity and the material wealth of the country, is the only true safeguard of the rights of individuals and the rights of society or of the State. Never was the education of the schools more generally diffused throughout this country than at the present day, and yet never was there so little public virtue in the country. The very fountains of political life are poisoned.—The whole apparatus of party politics is "conceived in sin and born in iniquity," until the "whole head is sick, the whole heart faint; from the crown of the head to the soles of the feet, there is no soundness, but wounds and bruises and putrefying sores." The extension of the elective franchise, under this state of things, cannot make the matter better, but worse. This is our opinion.

The fiat of the American people, nevertheless, has gone forth in its demand for universal suffrage. If it must be so, then let it be universal. But the proposition is only to enfranchise the white and the black man. Why so? Are not the women of America citizens of the United States? Have they not rights as well as men? If they have civil and political rights, less valuable and less important to them and the nation than the men, their rights should be better defined. It seems that no where, but in once "bleeding Kansas," are the rights of women likely to be appreciated at present.

If the elective franchise in the United States is to be extended to all male citizens of the United States, 21 years of age, as a right, in consideration of any claim they have upon the government or for any service rendered, we insist upon it that the women of the country have as strong claims as, if not stronger than, the men. If our men make good citizens, good soldiers or good any thing, they owe it to the women of the country. If intelligence be a condition of citizenship, then the claim of the women is equal to that of the men. If virtue be a consideration, then the women are more entitled, five to one. If a quick perception of mankind, a ready, nay almost an intuitive judgment of what will "turn-out for the best," be a qualification for suffrage, then the women have the preference by large odds. If stability of character, devotion to country, reverence for an oath, be good qualities in a voter, then give us the women. Women do not fix as small a price upon themselves as men—they are not as easily bought up—they will contend for what they believe to be right to the last—they will say "scissors" as long as it is possible, and, when you put their heads under water, they will still make a motion! If all men are, therefore, to vote, we need the conservative influence of woman's solid virtue, devotion, patriotism, and quick perception, to leaven the corrupt mass of universal male franchise.

Soberly, we prefer, if men would be virtuous and patriotic without, that the women should be keepers at home, the wives of one husband, the guardians of the nursery, minding their own business. But if we are to have universal male suffrage, we want the women to go along, too.

RADICAL SINCERITY.—We learn from the National Intelligencer, that, at an early hour on the morning after the recent municipal election, in Washington, hundreds of negroes, who had been imported from the fields of Maryland and Virginia to vote, were found sitting about the corners of the streets, waiting anxiously for the Republican committees to provide their meals and transportation home. Most of them had to rely upon their own resources. The negro-party managers had used them to their heart's content, and were willing to let them take care of themselves.

DISMAL SWAMP PEAT.—We have a specimen of peat as prepared by a company engaged in procuring it from the Dismal Swamp. The deposit is said to be very extensive, extending to a depth of six or eight feet from the surface of the bog. It is on the line of the Dismal Swamp Canal, about twelve miles from Norfolk. The peat is dug after the earth has been relieved of the winter's saturation. It is cleared of sticks and roots, and is then run through a mill, like clay in preparation for bricks. In this state it is compressed into moulds, nearly the shape and size of those used for moulding bricks, and laid out to dry. In ten or twelve days it is ready for use. It burns very readily, leaving a peculiar ash which is alleged to be a powerful manure. Peat is said to be particularly adapted to raising steam, rapidly, as well as excellent for family use.—Richmond Enquirer.

There are immense bodies of land of the same character, where peat can be manufactured, in Eastern North Carolina. Much of it could be bought very low.—Sentinel.

A VILE SLANDER.

We know no Radical sheet in the country that is conducted with a more offensive disregard of ordinary journalistic proprieties, or that is animated by a more acrid and vindictive spirit, than the Cincinnati Gazette.—At times, there is a show of reason, of sobriety and truth in it, but again it breaks forth in violent invective against Southern people, upon some fancied crime of ours, which has no existence but in the distorted imaginations of its own head or the head of its informer. Such reckless statements as the following are not uncommon in that paper:

"In the South it is the custom for white men to go armed with revolvers, and the custom of the chivalry of that country is to bully an unarmed man and to respect him who has his weapons ready. The blacks are particularly subject to this shooting chivalry, which is administered upon the slave code system that if a black raises his hand against a white, no matter how much the white may beat him, he shall be put to death."

It never was the custom of Southern whites to go "armed with revolvers" to any great extent, and those young men, who, in former days, wore them, did so generally in self-defence. The negro was never, whether slave or free, in more danger from this habit, (nor as much,) than whites. It was a bad habit, and we are glad that Gen. Sickles has broken up the practice.

When will the Northern press be willing to speak the truth and nothing but the truth, in regard to Southern people? When will they learn that we are neither freebooters nor vagabonds? The history of crime in North Carolina, as embodied in the Supreme Court Reports, and the reports of trials in newspapers, proves to the unprejudiced mind, that, in this State, a man's color or condition was never allowed, by our laws, to be an alleviation of the crime of an offender, when acts of cruelty or murder were committed against negroes. Every intelligent lawyer in the country will recollect the interesting and important decision of Judge Gaston, in the case of the State vs. Will, a slave from Edgecombe, in which he was charged with the killing of a white man. The Judge ruled that the slave was equally entitled with any other man to self protection of his own life, against the violence of his master or any one else, and that the act was justifiable homicide. The doctrines of that opinion have ruled in this State before and ever since. In the well known case of the State vs. Mima, a slave woman of John Smith, of Johnston, who killed her master for cruelties upon her person, the Court justified the killing. Many other cases might be named, involving instances of cruelty from others, as well as owners, and cases of killing, in which negroes have been unjustifiably assailed, when the white person killed was the assailant, wherein the Courts admitted the right of resistance on the part of the slave. No doubt cruelties and crimes of this class have occurred and have gone unpunished, but does this argue defect in the law or infidelity in the officers of justice? Certainly not. Are not such cases occurring almost daily in the Northern States? Does that prove that justice has fled the country in cases of class?

JNO. N. WASHINGTON, Esq., late civil Mayor of Newbern, but re-appointed by Gen. Sickles, declined to take the oath prescribed by that officer. Having doubts whether he could take it, Mr. Washington very properly says that, in a matter of so delicate a nature, a "doubt" should be conclusive.

Our Chapel Hill Correspondence.

THE EXERCISES ON COMMENCEMENT DAY—THE PRESIDENT AND PARTY HIGHLY GRATIFIED, &c.

CHAPEL HILL, June 6, P. M.

My letter to you yesterday closed with the President's reception. He is the guest of Gov. Swain.

Last night, Prof. Hepburn's eulogy upon the life and character of Rev. Prof. Phillips, D. D., deceased, was delivered in the University Chapel. The President did not make his appearance. I have never listened to a more chaste address. It was a thorough review of the history of this great and good man. Although long, all concur in feeling that there was not a sentence but was due the memory of Prof. Phillips. He was connected with the College about forty years. And a host of old pupils bear universal testimony to his ability and thoroughness in his professorship, and his purity as a man.

This morning, the sun was out for a fine day. Chapel Hill looked like it did in old times. The Chapel was packed with ladies. The procession formed in front of South building, and marched around the monument in memory of President Caldwell, headed by the Salisbury Brass Band.

The column entered the building in reversed order, and the appearance of President Johnson was greeted with a round of applause, that told that the post of the Presidency of the United States was held in highest veneration, and that this distinguished son of North Carolina was thrice welcome to her University.

The Band played "Old Hundred." Prof. Hubbard offered prayer. And then began the role of speeches.

Mr. Geo. McNeill, of Fayetteville, delivered the Latin salutatory, and acquitted himself in a praise-worthy manner.

The addresses were all good, especially that of Mr. Young, of Charlotte.

The graduates are few in number, but I learn that the next class is larger.

The societies held their meetings—President Johnson being received into the Dialectic Society.

To-night the Ball comes off, but I must leave that for other pens.

Thus closes another great day for Chapel Hill,—a third Presidential visitation—a third counting point in the history of commencements.

To-morrow the Chief Magistrate leaves for Washington, to resume his labors, at the head of forty-millions of people. I hear from subordinate members of the party, that the President and all are delighted with the visit, and with the peaceable and courteous character of our people.

The fact that the entire party can come to a point so remote from the thoroughfares as the secluded village of Chapel Hill, not only in safety, but be the recipients of the best wishes of our people, will give something for our defamers to think about.—Not a taunt—not a slight—but all due respect for the offices and incumbents—it does show to every passionless man that peace and tranquility reign in North Carolina.

RECONSTRUCTION IN CARTERET.

A Radical meeting was held at Newport, Carteret County, on Saturday last, at which Dr. M. F. Arendell presided.

Mr. E. W. Carpenter, of Newbern, was the first Speaker. A correspondent of the Journal of Commerce gives the following account of his remarks:

"Mr. Carpenter said he was a Yankee, bred and born in the North, and that from his earliest infancy he had been taught to look upon the colored man as his equal.—Still he could very well appreciate how many Southern people should differ from him in this matter. He would repeat here what he said in Jones county, that had he been reared and educated under the domestic institutions of the South, he had no doubt he should, to-day, have been as confirmed a secessionist as any man in North Carolina. He told the negroes that they need not cherish false hopes of confiscation—this would not take place. They must be honest, industrious and frugal, and purchase homes for themselves with the well earned wages of their labor."

C. R. Thomas next spoke; and, as is the case with all renegades, was bitter, violent and vindictive. He favored confiscation, unless the people "cheerfully" accepted the Sherman Reconstruction Act, and "paid a glowing compliment to the soldierly qualities of the stalwart blacks, who, in the late war, had plainly shown that, knowing their rights, they would dare maintain them," &c.

But here comes in the cream of the proceedings. After Thomas had concluded, (we quote the language of the Journal's correspodent:)

"Mr. Samuel Newberry, formerly of Washington Co., N. C., was called for, and mounted the stand: Mr. Newberry said he was a regular graduate of Castle Thunder, and gave a highly amusing account of the course through which he passed in that celebrated institution. He had always been an uncompromising Union man, but he was sorry to say that, from all he had heard, the gentleman who had immediately preceded him, could not claim as much. (Mr. Thomas seemed taken somewhat by surprise.)—He desired to ask Mr. Thomas if it was true that he voted for secession and held office under the Rebel government. (Mr. Thomas said he had.) Then Mr. Newberry thought that no man had a right to be lecturing him upon reconstruction, who, while he was in Castle Thunder and his sons in the woods, was legislating to keep them there! He meant no personal discourtesy, but he did think the robes of a priest should always be spotless.

Mr. Thomas said he could not understand why his record should be called in question here by men whom he knew to be good Union men." "He had voted for the ordinance of secession, it is true, but it was when treason had reached such a pitch that no man occupying his position could have refused to sign that ordinance and lived in North Carolina. He regretted the necessity then—it was a weakness of the flesh to yield to surrounding pressure, he was ready to admit—but who would have done otherwise? He held office to keep from going in the army, not for the purpose of "aiding or abetting the Rebellion." Under the present bill he was disfranchised, but had the bill proscribed those only who held office for the purpose of aiding the rebellion, he, for one, would take the required oath with all his heart!"

What a precious pair Thomas and Pool are, to be sure. The former held office under the Confederacy "to keep out of the army;" and the latter held office to "embarrass the Confederate government!"

When Mr. Thomas says that no man "could have refused to sign the ordinance of secession and lived in North Carolina," he utters a libel upon the people of the State. It is a pititul pretext to shield his own agency in bringing on strife. It is well known that, in its early stages, he was an active, zealous and uncompromising advocate of the war.

Subsequently to this meeting, a conservative meeting was held at the same place, at which Mr. Newberry presided. It will be borne in mind that C. R. Thomas, in his speech referred to above, recognized Mr. N., as one whom "he knew to be a good Union man." The meeting was ably addressed by Dr. Martin, who was loudly cheered by both whites and colored persons present.

WESTERN N. C. R. R.—At the late meeting of the Stockholders of this Road, held at Morganton, the amendments to the Charter, passed at the last session of the General Assembly, were adopted.

A proposition was read from a party, offering to lease the Road for two years, and rebuild the depots, put in new cross-ties, &c., which was referred to the Board of Directors.

At a meeting of the Directors, after the Stockholders' meeting had adjourned, they decided to purchase the Buncombe Turnpike at $50,000, to let out one division of 30 miles from Paint Rock up the French Broad River, at once, and to put the contractors to work from Morganton, West.

STEVENS ON CONFISCATION.—Mr. Thaddeus Stevens has again disregarded the instructions of his physician, and comes out with another letter in favor of confiscating the estates of rich "rebels," to compensate the Pennsylvania people for the losses and damages inflicted by "rebel raids." He also reiterates his intention to procure small homesteads for the freedmen who "conquered their rebel masters at our "request." Thaddeus hopes he will live five years longer, to work out his scheme. We predict that five years hence Thaddeus will, if living, be ready to deny that he ever favored confiscation.—Richmond Whig.

It appears that Mr. Ashley is inconsolable on account of the action of the Judiciary Committee in refusing to report a resolution of impeachment of the President. He proclaims his determination to force the Judiciary Committee, when it meets on the 26th instant, to reconsider their action of yesterday; and failing of success in this, he will compel the House to vote on the question. The action of the Committee, however, is approved by nearly all the Republicans here.—Washington Correspondence.

The presence of Brigadier General Green, the commandant of this post, says the Columbia Phœnix, at the obsequies of Colonel DeSaussure, on Tuesday, was a graceful tribute by one gallant officer to another who fell in the stern conflict at Gettysburg, in which both were participants, but on opposite sides. This act is in keeping with the courtesy manifested by the commandant in the conduct of his difficult mission.

In a town in Northern Berkshire, a bereaved widower was recently presented with a bill of $3 for digging his wife's grave. "What," says he, "two dollars for digging a grave in that soft place? I would have done it myself for a dollar."

GEN. SICKLES' ORDER NO. 34.

The following order has just come to hand, and is specially important to Sheriffs, Coroners, Chiefs of Police, City Marshals, Chiefs of Detectives, &c., &c., who are charged with the preservation of the public peace. We insert it for the benefit of all:

HEADQ'RS, 2ND MILITARY DISTRICT,
Charleston, S. C., June 3, 1867.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 34.

I. Sheriffs, Chiefs of Police, City Marshals, Chiefs of Detectives and Town Marshals of the several districts, counties, cities, towns, and other municipal organizations, in North Carolina and South Carolina, will at once, by letter, report to Bvt. Col. Edward W. Hinks, U. S. Army, Provost Marshal General of the Second Military District, Charleston, South Carolina, setting forth in the report the name of each officer, his residence, official station, post office address, salary per annum, and the authority by whom appointed. Coroners, Constables and other officers in this Military District, whose duty it is to make arrests, and who are not included in the force of any Sheriff, Chief of Police, City Marshal, Chief of Detectives or Town Marshal, will make individual reports to the Provost Marshal General in like manner and form as above required.

II. Whenever any homicide, rape, mayhem, felonious assault, burglary, arson, robbery or larceny—where the property stolen is of the value of twenty-five dollars and more, shall be committed within any city or town in this Military District, the chief officer of police of such city or town shall at once investigate the case and report the facts to the Provost Marshal General, setting forth the nature of the crime, the name and residence of the party against whose person or property such crime has been committed, the time when and place where it was committed, the name, description and residence of the offender, if known; and if the offender has been arrested, stating what steps have been taken to secure his punishment; and if not in custody, giving any information which may be of service in securing his detection and arrest. Sheriffs of Counties in North Carolina and of Districts in South Carolina, shall investigate and make report of such offences, when committed within their respective counties or districts and not within the limits of any city or town, in like manner and form as herein required of chiefs of police of cities and towns. When an offender, whose offence has been reported, shall be arrested, report of the arrest will be made at once by the officer in charge to the Provost Marshal General.

Consolidated monthly reports of the above enumerated crimes will also be made by the respective officers and for the localities above designated to the Provost Marshal General. Blanks will be furnished by him upon application. The first report to include the period from January 1st to May 31st, 1867.

III. Whenever any prisoner shall break and escape from a penitentiary, jail or other prison, in the Second Military District, the officer in charge of such penitentiary, jail or other prison shall at once make report of the facts to the Provost Marshal General, setting forth in such report the date of escape, the name of each escaped prisoner, his description, age, residence, the crime for which committed, whether under sentence or awaiting trial, whether re-captured; and stating fully the manner of the escape and the circumstances under which it was effected. Reports in like form and manner will be made by all officers from whose custody prisoners may escape while being conducted to or from a prison. Whenever a prisoner shall be re-captured the fact will be at once reported to the Provost Marshal General by the officer from whose custody the prisoner escaped. Failure to make prompt report of escaped prisoners as herein required will inculpate the delinquent officer as aiding and abetting the escape.

IV. The Sheriffs of the counties in North Carolina, and of districts in South Carolina, will at once report to the Provost Marshal General the condition of the jails, prisons or work-houses under their charge, or in their respective districts or counties, as to capacity, convenience and security, and the names and residences of the officers responsible for the care of such jails, prisons and work-houses.

V. All civil officers having charge of any jail, prison or work house, in this Military District, shall, on the last day of each month, make a report to the Provost Marshal General upon blanks to be by him prescribed and furnished upon application, of all persons who have been confined in such jail, prison or work-house during the month, setting forth the name of the prisoner, his description, residence, age, when committed, for what offence arrested, by whom arrested, by whose order arrested, whether under sentence or awaiting trial; if under sentence, by what tribunal tried and sentenced; if sentenced, for what period, and the amount of fine or costs, if any; how employed; how subsisted; whether discharged, transferred, escaped or deceased; if discharged, by what authority; if transferred, to what place; and by whom ordered. The first report made under the requirements of this paragraph will include the period from January 1st to May 31st, 1867.

VI. All Sheriffs, Constables, Police and other civil officers and persons, whose duty it is under the Provisional Government of North and South Carolina to serve writs or make arrests, are hereby required to obey and execute the lawful orders of the Provost Marshal General, to the same effect as they are required by law to obey and execute writs, warrants, or other process issued by civil Magistrates.—And any resistance to, or disobedience of the lawful orders or authority of the Provost Marshal General, shall subject the offender to trial by a Military Commission, and, upon conviction, to removal from office and punishment by fine and imprisonment.

VII. Duplicates of the reports required, by the provisions of paragraphs II, III and V of this order, to be made by local officers to the provost Marshal General, will at the same time be sent to the proper post commander.

VII. The performance of the duties enjoined by this order will not be construed to relieve civil officers from the discharge of any of the duties now required of them by the laws of the local Provisional Governments. And any civil officer who shall refuse or neglect to perform promptly the duties herein required of him, or who shall make any false return or report of the matters herein prescribed, shall be dismissed from his office, and be subject to trial by Military Commission for misdemeanor.

IX. Sheriffs, constables and other officers, whose official emoluments are confined to costs and fees, shall be allowed for services performed under the orders of the Provost Marshal General, the same costs and fees, to be paid in the same manner as is provided by the laws of the local provisional governments for like service under those laws.

X. All persons in this Military District, who may know of any threatened breach of the peace, or of the commission of any crime or offence, are requested to make complaint thereof at once to the chief police or marshal of the city or town; or, if the crime or disorder shall be committed without the limits of any city or town, to a magistrate or the sheriff of the county or district; and if prompt action shall not be taken by the officer to whom the matter shall be reported, such persons are requested to report all the facts to the post commander and to the Provost Marshal General.

XI. Imprisonment for default in payment of costs, fees, or charges of court, attornies or public officers, shall not exceed thirty days.

By command of
Major General D. E. SICKLES,
J. W. CLOUS,
Capt. 38th U. S. Infantry,
A. D. C. & A. A. A. G.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the members of the bar at Smithfield, held at the Court House, on the 28th day of May, 1867,

On motion of R. G. Lewis, the Hon Wm. T. Dortch was called to the Chair; and L. R. Waddell was appointed Secretary.

The Chairman explained the object of the meeting to be to pass resolutions relative to the death of the late SIDNEY A. SMITH, Esq.

On motion of R. G. Lewis, Esq., a Committee of three gentlemen of the bar were appointed to draft suitable resolutions, expressive of the sense of the meeting.

The Chair appointed R. G. Lewis, L. Eldridge, and J. H. Abell, Esq'rs.

After retiring a short time, the Committee reported, through R. G. Lewis, Esq., the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, viz:

WHEREAS, an All-Wise Providence has seen fit to remove from our midst SIDNEY A SMITH, Esq., a most worthy member of our Profession; and whereas it is right and proper that some substantial record should be made of his life and death:

Therefore, Resolved, that we, the members of the legal Profession, who have been accustomed to associate with SIDNEY A. SMITH, Esq., at the bar, and in the private circle, and who knew him well and intimately, can testify to his powers of oratory as a public speaker and his many acts of generosity and benevolence.

Resolved, That, as a Profession, we sincerely deplore his death, and hereby tender our sympathy and condolence to his family and friends.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family, and that the County Solicitor be requested to have them spread on the minutes of the Court; and that a copy be furnished the Sentinel, in Raleigh, for publication, and that the Raleigh Standard and Goldsboro' News be requested to copy.

The meeting was then addressed in a few brief, feeling and appropriate remarks by Col. W. J. Clarke.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.

PATENT IMPROVED METHOD OF

SINKING WELLS,

OR

THE NEW LABOR SAVING

ECONOMICAL PUMPS.

HAVING PURCHASED THE ENTIRE AND exclusive right to the patent improved method of sinking Wells, for the State of North Carolina, we desire to have a good and reliable Agent in every county of the State.

As it is desirable for every family to have an abundant supply of water, on their own premises, for convenience, safety and economy, the sale of this Pump offers a fine opening for an enterprising man in each county, to engage in profitable business.

OUR PRICES ARE FOR No. 1 SIZE, $35;
No. 2, $30,

WITH A LIBERAL DISCOUNT TO AGENTS.

We have a No. 2 Pump in operation in front of our Store, No. 22, Pollock Street, which was sunk in an hour, and supplies about 3,000 GALLONS of pure water per day. They can also be seen in operation at the Gaston House, and at other places in Newbern; also at Kinston, Beaufort, Morehead city, and at many other places.

This is the cheapest and most speedy mode of obtaining water in any section, as you can exclude any stream of water reached, which is not satisfactory, and obtain only that which is most desirable.

LIFE INSURANCE.

From the Wall Street Reporter.

Ætna Life Insurance Company.

THE ÆTNA LIFE PRESENTS THE MOST signal example of American progress and accumulative energy. Every branch and department of the institution appears to be replete with the most active vitality and growth, and the rapidity of its advancement is so great that it promises to eclipse all its competitors and to become, if it is not already, the first Life Insurance Company of America.

How nearly these presages are already accomplished and how certain they are of completeness and speedy fulfilment, may be gathered from the following facts. In 1861 it issued 563 policies, the premiums amounting to but 479,553.67. Since that period its growth has been something altogether unprecedented in the history of Life Insurance, its business having been annually doubled, tripled, and, on one occasion, almost quadrupled, till it has culminated in the yearly issue of over fourteen thousand policies, insuring over forty million dollars, at the same time that it was the recipient of the annual revenue of over Three and a Half Millions of Dollars.

It accordingly appears that the Ætna Life insured last year with one exception, the largest number of persons of any Company in the United States, and even as to amount insured it is surpassed by only two Companies, and it is probable that it would not have been excelled by them in this respect, if it were not deemed incompatible with its permanent interests to grant a single policy for a sum exceeding ten thousand dollars; for, although so remarkably progressive, the Ætna's course has always been equally prudent, safe and conservative. But certainly in its increase of business in 1866 over that of 1865, including the issue of policies, amount insured, and total income, when its position and that of other Companies at the commencement of last year are duly considered, it must be regarded, beyond comparison, as the most successful of all. The present year witnesses no abatement of this youthful vigor and growth. On the contrary, we learn that the Company's increase of business in 1867 is nearly double that of the corresponding months of 1866. The realization of the avowed purpose of the management of the Ætna Life to make their Company the first, largest and best in the Union, appears therefore to have become a part of the "manifest destiny of the nation."

It must be admitted that there is something truly inspiring in the contemplation of the noble achievements of this Company; for although the material progress it has made is measurable by the actuary, the good it has done and the good it is yet destined to accomplish, transcend the calculation of all but Omniscience. The battle's victory, the triumph of material art and science are less glorious than the conquests of genuine philanthropy, of which Life Insurance is perhaps the most perfect emanation. In all countries and in all times the widow and orphan have been regarded as special objects of solicitude and bounty by the good and great, and even in the dark ages, the dauntless and true knight added a crowning lustre to his fame by affording them relief and protection. Yet never until now—never until the complete establishment of Life Insurance, have the widow, orphan, and such dependants been justly, sufficiently, liberally and honorably provided for, and a Company like the Ætna Life, that takes the lead in this most beneficent work, is therefore deserving of all honor, praise and encouragement.

There is yet one feature peculiar to the Ætna Life entitled to especial commendation and that is its economy. In this regard, notwithstanding its activity, youth, growth, and amount of new business, it presents a remarkable exception, and the skill and care of its President, E. A. Bulkeley, Esq., and its zealous and able Secretary, T. O Enders, Esq., are manifested in the success which has attended their efforts to unite in their management the qualities of extraordinary efficiency and strict economy. The ratio of the Ætna's expenses to premium and total income is lower than that of the Mutual Life, its Titanic rival, and, under the latter heading, less than that of the Connecticut Mutual, notwithstanding the advantages possessed by these companies in their great accumulation of many years' business; but, although the ratio of the Ætna's disbursements is now considerably below the general average, it might have been reduced below that of any but for its generous, find in many instances, most laudable practice of paying claims before maturity. It keeps no orphan or widow waiting for her insurance money, even when not yet legally payable. It consults the spirit and design of the institution rather than the policy of preparing materials for an attractive exhibit. This genial benevolence and liberal dealing render the company a great favorite with the public.

Similar commendation might be justly extended to its other popular features and reforms, including its non-forfeiture policies, its helpful credit given during the continuance of policy, its equitable division of all the profits among the insured, except the six per cent. on the stock capital, and its excellent and productive dividend system. The last feature has afforded great satisfaction to its members, for its dividend which "is paid two years from date of policy and annually thereafter on the amount of premium," has this year, and for several years past, amounted to 50 per cent., and is paid promptly in the same year it is declared in cash on each policies, or applied to the credit of those who have received credit.

We should, however, exceed the space to which we are restricted, if we were to enumerate the special advantages enjoyed by the members of the Ætna Life, who now number over thirty thousand, and who seem to fully appreciate their privileges, for they are the company's voluntary and in many instances most efficient agents, and assist in spreading its benefits with an earnestness and cordiality which speak well for their benevolence and vainness for the institution itself.

The Ætna Life is one of our soundest and safest Life corperations. It has over five million dollars securely invested, and a million dollars surplus above all liabilities, including the full value of all its existing policies. From every point of view this great Company displays features of special merit and unusual excellence; and if the prediction that its issue of policies during this year will amount to twenty-two thousand and its receipts to seven million dollars, should be fulfilled, it will get no more than its due—no more than the best friends of Life Insurance and of humanity (for they are identical) sincerely trust it will obtain and employ, as hitherto, to the advancement and elevation of society and eventually to the grateful relief and honorable maintenance of the widows and orphans of the provident and true hearted.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 1867.

THE LATE COL. BURGWYN.—The funeral services of this gallant soldier, whose remains will reach here by this evening's train, have been postponed until to morrow (Sunday) afternoon, 4 o'clock, at the Episcopal Church.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Sparkling Soda Water:—Phil. Thiem, Fayetteville Street.

The large wooden ware-house, belonging to the N. C. and R. & G. R. R. Companies, near the Depot of the former, will be sold at public auction on the 15th. inst.

We invite particular attention to Mitchell, Allen & Co's. "New Labor-Saving Economical Pumps." This is the same invention so highly praised by a correspondent of the Sentinel, some days ago. We have written to the proprietors for a full description of its mechanism and advantages, and will take pleasure in giving the information to the public, when received.

The fall term of the excellent Bingham School commences July 24.

Herrings, N. C. Whiskey, fresh Mountain Butter, &c.:—Pulliam, Jones & Co.

Cotton Gins, Threshing Machines, Wheat Fans, &c.:—B. P. Williamson & Co.

Mechanic's tools, Farmer's implements, &c., &c.:—Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

R. Norfleet & Co., near the R. R. Station, at Tarboro', have 5,000 bushels of corn, which they will grind up into fine meal, to supply any demand at short notice.

THE PRESIDENT'S RETURN.—The President and suite passed Raleigh, on yesterday, on their return to the seat of government, which they are expected to reach some time in the course of to day. Gov. Worth and Gen. Sickles also returned to this city.

REGISTERS IN BANKRUPTCY.—We learn that, upon the nomination of the Chief Justice, His Honor, Judge Brooks, has appointed the following Registers in Bankruptcy:

2nd District, R. F. Lehman, of Newbern.

5th District, Thos. B. Keogh, of Greensborough.

6th District, R. H. Broadfield, of Lexington.

7th District, Clinton A. Cilley, Lenoir, N. C.

The others will be appointed in a few days, and for the 1st and 2nd Districts, two Registers, for each, will be appointed.

WE ARE gratified to be able to state that the Sentinel has received most flattering accessions to its subscription list, within the past week. If our friends in various quarters would only exert themselves a little, the circulation of the paper, already large, could be very greatly increased.

TRANSFERRED.—We learn that our young friend, Jno. R. Williams, Jr., has been ordered from the telegraph office, in this City, to duty at the Richmond office. He is an efficient and attentive operator, and deservedly popular with all who know him. He will make friends wherever he goes.

STRAWBERRIES.—The strawberries this season have been more abundant than usual in this section, and very large. We have heard of some as large as guinea eggs. We have not seen any such.

SODA-WATER.—We can bear testimony to the superior Soda-Water manufactured by P. Thiem. It is perfectly delicious. His fountain is a splendid affair, his syrups of the first order and the soda-water is kept ice-cold. He can be found in the store immediately below the Sentinel office.

MISTAKE.—The Petersburg Index speaks of "Col. Hampton" as the author of "Cousin Sally Dillard." Wrong, neighbor. The author of that rich narrative is Hamilton C. Jones, Sr., of Salisbury, in this State.

EXCELLENT LITHOGRAPHS.—Mr. H. T. Clawson, on the S. E. corner of the Capitol Square, has exhibited to us most admirable lithograph portraits, large size, of Gen. Lee and Gov. Worth. They are not only artistically executed, but are faithful likenesses. Mr. Clawson is Agent for the sale of them in this City, and they can be had at the low price of $3 each. Mr. C. has, at the same time, a splendid assortment of frames, of all qualities and styles.

INN-CREASING.—It is thought that the number of "inns" will be greatly multiplied very soon. One sign is already up in this "burg," we are informed:

> "——— lives here,
> Has good cider, porter, beer,
> Come, friends, down with your tin—
> Dinner for $1 and a drink thrown in!"

A wise man once said: "There are three things which will surprise us when we get to Heaven: First, to find many there whom we did not expect. Second, not to find many there whom we did expect. Third, the greatest wonder will be to find ourselves there."

CIRCUIT COURT.—Chief-Justice Chase rendered his decision, on yesterday, to the effect, that he would not regard the Stay-Law in the practice and pleadings of the Federal Court—that actions for debt must take their legitimate and ordinary course, agreeably to the practice and pleadings of the Federal Courts. The decision is doubtless a legitimate one, regarding the Constitution and the laws of the United States as still in force in Military District No. 2., yet it must operate with singular hardship upon debtors whose creditors reside beyond the State. Citizens of the State are barred by the State law and by order No. 10 of Gen. Sickles from collecting their debts from their fellow-citizens, yet these same debtors are obliged, by the ruling of the Federal Court, to pay their foreign creditors.—The effect will be to force hundreds into bankruptcy.

The other business transacted in the Court, on yesterday, was of no very general interest.

GEN. ORDER No. 32.—This order has created a great sensation, particularly among the venders of spirits, in this City, as well as elsewhere in District 2. We presume that it will be but a few days, at farthest, before it is officially communicated to the City authorities and put into execution.

In brief, the following is a summary of the general provisions of the order:

1st. All qualified voters are eligible to any office.

2nd. All persons who have paid taxes for the current year are eligible as jurors.

3d. All citizens are eligible to follow any licensed calling or vocation.

4th. The civil authorities must maintain order.

5th. Civil officers and civilians must give such aid to the military as may be required.

6th. All bar-room licenses are annulled, except such as are held by inn-keepers.

7th. All contracts in relation to intoxicating liquors depend for their fulfilment upon the good faith of the parties alone.

8th. All persons have equal and common rights in every public conveyance.

9th. No property can be distrained on for the non-payment of rent.

GEN. SICKLES' SPECIAL ORDER.

The following order is specially important to the Counties for which it is designed:

HDQR'S 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., May 27th., 1867.
SPECIAL ORDERS,
No. 35.

[EXTRACT.]

* * * * * * *

V. A Provost Court is hereby established for the Post of Fayetteville, embracing the Counties of Cumberland, Harnett, Moore, Montgomery and Richmond, N. C., to consist of W. H. Porter, Esq., of Fayetteville, presiding, together with John D. Minor, Esq., and M. A. Baker, Esq., of Fayetteville, N. C., associate Judges. The laws of North Carolina not inconsistent with the laws of the United States or the orders of the Commanding General, will govern the proceedings of the Court:

1. The Court shall have jurisdiction of any case not arising under the Articles of War which may be referred to it by the Post Commander, except murder, manslaughter, rape or arson. Sentences, in criminal cases, imposing fines or penalties exceeding one hundred ($100) dollars, or affecting the liberty of any person, shall not be executed until approved by the Commanding General. The Court will carefully observe the requirements of G. O. 10, current series, from these Headquarters.—When in the judgment of the Post Commander, persons charged with murder, manslaughter, rape, arson, or other crime should be brought to trial before a military commission, the accused will be taken into custody, and the evidence in the case, with charges in due form, forwarded to these Headquarters.

2. The Post Commander, upon the application of any person sued or prosecuted in any civil court in Cumberland, Harnett, Moore, Mongomery of Richmond counties, may order the transfer of the case to the Provost Court upon satisfactory evidence that the ends of justice require such transfer.

3. The proceedings of the Court in all cases will be forwarded to the Post Commander for review and approval; appeals to these Headquarters from the action of the Post Commander will not be considered unless accompanied by printed papers and arguments of the parties or their counsel, nor will any motion or appeal be heard ex parte.

4. The compensation of the civilian Judge or Judges will be four dollars a day. The Court may employ a Clerk at a compensation not exceeding three dollars a day, who shall keep a record of its proceedings. The expenses of the Court must be borne out of the fund accruing from fines and costs paid by parties.

5. Simple rules and forms of procedure will be established by the Court and published for general information.

6. At the end of each month a return of all receipts and expenditures, with vouchers, will be made by the Court to the Post Commander and by him forwarded to these Headquarters.

J. W. CLOUS, A. A. A. G., &c.

A BIG REDUCTION.—California wheat, which sold recently in this market for $3,60 a bushel, will now hardly command $3.—Flour is falling. Bakers, do you hear it?—Grocers, do you heed it? Australia is now burdened with wheat, waiting freight to England, and England is sending lots of California wheat to the United States. We congratulate consumers upon this new and timely supply.—New York Express.

SEARCH AND SEIZURE.—Salem and Winston were visited last week by some Revenue Inspectors in search of contraband liquors and tobacco. Upon a warrant issued by Commissioner Vest, and sworn out by Inspector Henry A. Lemly, of Salem, they searched one store and one private dwelling house, but did not succeed in finding anything contraband but a couple of boxes of branded tobacco, which they captured.—Winston Sentinel.

The Mobile Advertiser says Hon. John A. Campbell, R. H. Smith, and Rufus Andrews, Esqrs., have been retained as counsel for Withers in his suit in the United States Circuit Court, to test the legality of his removal from the Mayor's office by military order.

The New York Herald says the returns, thus far, indicates a decline of forty per cent, in the internal revenue receipts for the year 1867, as compared with 1866. This will make a difference of a hundred and twenty-millions of dollars. The decline is nearly uniform throughout the North.

The Mayor of Augusta, Ga., announces in his message that there is just $10 in the Treasury with which to pay a floating debt of $112,000.

BUTLER ON CONFISCATION.

WASHINGTON, June 7.

The following is the concluding paragraph of a letter from Butler, read at a negro meeting last night:

"Is it not a self evident political truth that where the land is held in large tracts by the employer, to be tilled by the employed, there can be no just and true field for the exercise of republican citizenship? And it is one of the pressing exigencies of the country, as the very basis of reconstruction, that some plan must be devised by which the lands of the South may be divided among those who shall occupy and till them."

Saturday Morning Dispatches.

THE PRESIDENT IN PETERSBURG.

PETERSBURG, June 7, P. M.

The Presidential party arrived here this afternoon, on their return to Washington, having been escorted from Jarratt's Depot by Mayor Collier and a Committee of the City Council. The Mayor renewed the tender of hospitalities formerly offered by the municipal authorities.

The President said that while he was grateful for this manifestation of kindness he regretted that his public engagements compelled him to decline the desired sojourn for a day, as business required his immediate return to Washington.

The large concourse at the hotel received the party with repeated cheers.

The President, having been called for, made a few remarks in which he said he had tried to discharge his duty faithfully. He had made conscientious conviction his courage, the public good his aim, the Constitution his guide, and these he would stand by. He expressed his gratitude for this reception, and the hope that when he again came here it would be under more favorable circumstances with the country whole and peace and prosperity everywhere prevailing. He was heartily cheered.

Secretary Seward, in response to calls, merely remarked that they had heard from the President exactly what he would say, were he to make a speech.

Postmaster General Randall was called out, who briefly admonished all to forget the strife of the past and to unite for the future in all the country's prosperity.

As the party remained an hour in Petersburg they were handsomely entertained with a supper, and were the recipients of marked attentions. The party will remain in Richmond to-night and leave for Washington to-morrow morning.

THE PRESIDENT IN RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, June 7, P. M.

The President and party arrived here at 10 o'clock P. M., and were met at the depot by the Mayor and a Committee of the City Council and Capt. Millward, of the Spottswood Hotel, by whom they were escorted to that House. A band of music performed several patriotic airs.

At all the stations on the way hither many persons, notwithstanding the rains, came out to see the President and saluted him with cheers. At Weldon he made a few remarks mainly in acknowledgement of the compliment. As did also, Secretary Seward. Several voices were heard, applying to the latter, "God bless you old man, God bless you," and similar good wishes were expressed for the President. The reception at Weldon was more earnest than at any other place between Raleigh and Petersburg.

After the President arrived at the Spottswood, a very large number of persons crowded to the parlors where the President and Secretary Seward were introduced to them.

There was to-night more enthusiasm than when the President arrived in the city, last Sunday, and the greeting was far more cordial.

THE GOVERNORSHIP OF LOUISIANA—MEXICAN NEWS.

WASHINGTON, June 7.

Benjamin F. Flanders, the new appointee for Governor, called on Gov. Wells this morning at the Executive office and made known that he came in obedience to the order of Gen. Sheridan, and was ready to enter upon the duties of Executive of the State. Wells declined to voluntarily vacate the office, and protested, in writing, against the action of the military authorities.

At 3 P. M. an order was received at the Executive office addressed to Flanders, but he was absent. The nature of the communication was not ascertained.

Mexican news received to-day confirms the previous reports that Lopez sold Querataro to Escobado for three thousand ounces. No new developments.

FASHIONABLE WEDDING.—A fashionable wedding took place at St. James' Cathedral, Toronto, C. W., on the 4th. William Hyde, editor of St. Louis "Republican," was married to Miss Bulson, a Southern lady, who has resided here for some time. The Cathedral was densely crowded. Hon. Jeff. Davis, J. M. Mason, General Jubal Early, Colonel Dorsey, and other Southern celebrities, were present. Davis, on being recognized, was loudly cheered. The event created quite a sensation.

KNOW THY DESTINY.

MADAME E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. THE SENTINEL.

SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 1867.

SWINGING ON A BIRCH TREE.

Swinging on a birch-tree
To a sleepy tune,
Hummed by all the breezes
In the month of June!
Little leaves a flutter
Sound like dancing drops
Of a brook on pebbles—
Song that never stops.

Up and down we see-saw;
Up into the sky;
How it opens on us,
Like a wide blue eye!
You and I are sailors
Rocking on a mast;
And the world's our vessel,
Ho! she sails so fast!

Blue, blue sea around us;
Not a ship in sight;
They will hang out lanterns
When they pass to-night.
We with ours will follow
Through the midnight deep,
Not a thought of danger,
Though the crew's asleep.

O, how still the air is!
There an oriole flew;
What a jolly whistle!
He's a saber, too.
Yonder is his hammock
In the elm-top high;
One more ballad, messmate!
Sing it as you fly!

Up and down we see-saw;
Down into the grass,
Scented fern, and rose buds
All a woven mass.
That's the sort of carpet
Fitted for our feet;
Tapestry nor velvet
Is so rich and neat.

Swinging on a birch tree!
This is summer joy,
Fun for all vacation—
Don't you think so boy?
Up and down to see-saw,
Merry and at ease;
Careless as a brook is,
Idle as the breeze.

When Joseph Bonaparte first went to America, he travelled with a number of attendants. On one occasion, stopping at a hotel, he was well entertained, and was quite profuse in his compliments to mine host.—In the morning, when the landlord made out the bill, he put in every item he could think of; yet when he added it up, he did not think the total was large enough for an ex-monarch to pay. So he reviewed the bill and added a few more items. Yet still it did not seem enough. He then added one more, "To kicking up a fuss generally, fifty dollars."

Dr. Holmes, in the Guardian Angel, makes Byles Grimes read thus:

"Where there is one man who squints with his eyes, there are a dozen who squint with their brains. It is an infirmity in one of the eyes, making the two unequal in power, that makes men squint. Just so it is an inequality in the two halves of the brain that makes some men idiots and others rascals. I know a fellow whose right half is a genius, but his other hemisphere belongs to a tool; and I had a friend perfectly honest on one side, but who was sent to jail because the other had an inveterate tendency in the direction of picking pockets and appropriating as alienum."

The Appeal says a tournament is shortly to be held in Memphis by the negroes.—"There will be," continues the Appeal, "the knight of Ebo Shin, the knight of Chalk-in-the-Eye, the knight of Tar Heel, the knight of Dat Colored Cuss from Africa, the knight of Dinah Jenkins, and other gallants, who will enter the lists, and snatch the bubble glory from the end of a stick."

One night, in a thunder shower, we thought the little ones all asleep, when a little voice from the "trundle-bed" called out, "Oh, mother, the dark is winking! first it shuts up, and then it shuts down."

A WISE DECISION.—A gentleman going to take a boat at Richmond, cried out, "Who can swim?" "I, master," came from forty bawling mouths; but one fellow turning about said, "Sir, I cannot swim." "Then you are my man," said the gentleman, "for you will at least take care of me for your own sake."

A rather profane church-goer one day asked his clergyman what was the meaning of the passage in the Psalms, "He clothed himself with cursing as with a garment."—"The meaning," replied the clergyman, "is plain enough. I think that the man, like you, had a habit of swearing."

Gen. Custer's recent cavalry raids against the Indians are compared to hunting wild ducks with a brass band.

ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS.

OPEN JUNE 1.

This favorite and delightful watering-place, having undergone thorough renovation, is prepared to receive visitors. The owners have made every effort in the outfit and equipment to render the place more than ever attractive to those in quest of recreation, while to the invalid its medicinal waters hold out new hopes of health. It may be confidently claimed for them that they have in a great many cases relieved, and in many more cases cured, the following diseases: SCROFULA, and many chronic CUTANEOUS diseases; CHRONIC THRUSH, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, CHRONIC DIARRHŒA, DROPSY, AFFECTIONS of KIDNEY and BLADDER, and PILES; and, in connection with the Hot Baths, CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

As an appetizer, a tonic, and general restorative to an enfeebled constitution, it is perhaps unrivalled amongst mineral waters. The proprietors have engaged for the approaching season both for the LAWN and the BALL-ROOM.

A VERY SUPERIOR BAND OF MUSIC,

THE BILLIARD AND BOWLING SALOONS, both for ladies and gentlemen, will be found in more complete order than ever before.

From the very extensive preparations now making at all the leading Virginia Springs, a heavy travel is anticipated, and, we think, will be attracted. It shall be the aim of the undersigned to keep their establishment FULLY UP TO THE FOREMOST; and they hope to see a renewal of the social re-unions which in former years lent such a charm to these mountain retreats.

Passengers by the Virginia Central railroad get off the cars at GOSHEN Depot. Eight (8) miles of staging over a smooth road lands them at the Springs.

BOARD, $3.50 PER DAY; $90 PER MONTH.

We have secured the efficient services of Captain WILLIAM H. SALE, so long and favorably known to the public, in connection with these Springs.

GENERAL ORDER NO. 32.

HEADQUARTERS, 2ND MILITARY DISTRICT,
Charleston, May 30.

General Orders No. 32.

1. Any citizen, a qualified voter according to the requirements of the Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2nd, 1867, and the act supplemental thereto, passed March 23rd, 1867, is eligible to office in the Provisional government of North and South Carolina. All persons appointed to office will be required to take the oath prescribed by the act aforesaid and to file the same duly subscribed and sworn with the Post Commander.

2. All citizens assessed for taxes, and who shall have paid taxes for the current year, are qualified to serve as jurors. It shall be the duty of the proper civil officers, charged with providing lists of jurors, to proceed within their several jurisdictions, without delay, and ascertain the names of all qualified persons, and place them on the jury lists, and from such revised lists all jurors shall be hereafter summoned, and drawn in the manner required by law.

3. All citizens are eligible to follow any licensed calling, employment or avocation, subject to such impartial regulations as may be prescribed by municipal or other competent authority, not inconsistent with common rights and the Constitution and laws of the United States. The bond required as security shall not exceed the penal sum of one hundred dollars. One or more sureties being citizens and worth, in the aggregate, double the amount of the bond, over and above just debts, will be sufficient.

4. The Mayors of cities and other municipal and town officers, and all Sheriffs, Magistrates and Police officers, are required to be vigilant and efficient in maintaining order, and in the discharge of their duties. They will be expected to co-operate with the military authorities.

5. Post commanders may summon to their aid, whenever the ordinary means at their disposal shall not be sufficient to execute their orders, such of the civil officers, and as many of the citizens, within the territorial limits of the military post, as may be necessary, and the neglect or refusal of any person to aid and assist in the execution of the orders of the Commanding officer will be deemed a misdemeanor, punishable by such fine and imprisonment as may be imposed by a military tribunal approved by the Commanding General.

6. No license for the sale of intoxicating liquors in quantities less than one gallon or to be drank on the premises shall be granted to any person other than an Inn-keeper. The number of such licenses shall be determined, and the fees to be charged for each license shall be prescribed and collected, by the municipal or town authorities and appropriated exclusively for the benefit of the poor. If any person shall be found drunk on the premises where liquor is sold, the license may be revoked by any magistrate. The tax imposed by the Internal Revenue laws of the United States is an additional charge and does not excuse the person from the observance of local regulations, nor exempt him from the payment of such other license fees as may be imposed by the municipal or other competent authorities.

7. All contracts hereafter made for the manufacture, sale or transportation, storage or insurance of intoxicating liquors shall within this military district be deemed and treated as against public policy, and no civil action, suit or proceedings for the enforcement of any such contract shall be entertained in any court.

8. In public conveyances on railroads, highways, streets or navigable waters, no discrimination because of color or caste shall be made, and the common rights of all citizens therein shall be recognized and respected. The violation of this regulation will be deemed a misdemeanor and render the offender liable to arrest and trial by a Military tribunal to be designated by the commanding General, besides such damages as the injured party may sue for and recover in the civil Courts.

9. The remedy by distress for rent is abolished. Where lands are leased, or let out for hire or rent, cotton, corn or other produce of the same, when severed from the land, may be impounded, but the same shall not be removed. Any cotton, corn or other produce so impounded shall be held as security for the rent or hire so claimed and may be sold in satisfaction of any judgment for the same, Provided, that any unsatisfied claim for labor bestowed upon the cultivation of such cotton, corn, or other produce, shall, in no case, be postponed to any demand for rent or hire. But to the extent of such claim for labor there shall be a lien on such cotton, corn and other produce having preference over any claim for rent or hire.

By command of
MAJ. GEN. SICKLES,
J. W. CLOUS, A. A. A. G.

"THE CHURCH OF THE STRANGERS,"

NEW YORK,

REV. DR. DEEMS, PASTOR.

STRANGERS visiting New York are respectfully informed that a congregation, composed of Christians of different Protestant denominations, has been organized under the pastoral charge of the Rev. CHARLES F. DEEMS, D. D., of North Carolina. Visiting clergymen of the several churches are invited to officiate. No sectarianism, no partisan politics, will be allowed to interfere with the worship.

The service is held morning and night in the Large Chapel of the University, immediately West of the New York Hotel.

The Pastor's residence and post office address is 221 WEST 34th. STREET. Strangers in the city, who are sick or in distress, may freely call upon Dr Deems for pastoral service.

When any member of any church comes to New York to engage in business, let him call promptly on the Pastor of the Church of the Strangers.—Especially let this be done in the case of young men who will have a cordial welcome.

Newspapers through the country, friendly to the enterprise, will please copy this advertisement and allow it to stand.

Congressional Reconstruction Acts.

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabarger bill. We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

AN ACT to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 20, 1867.]

WHEREAS, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and try offenders, or, when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized, affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same; and when the said State, by a vote of its legislature, elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,
President of the Senate pro tem.

The following is the Constitutional Amendment referred to in the 4th section of the Sherman Bill:

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United states, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowlege and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God," which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the Court, Houses of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office, and rendered incapable, forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have never been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, nor held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God," which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

SEC. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

SEC. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

SEC. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

SEC. 5. That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

SEC. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office." Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

SEC. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

SEC. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

ATTRACTIVE STOCK.

McILWAINE & CO.,

Wholesale Dealers in Foreign and Domestic

Dry Goods, Notions & Clothing,

NO. 79 SYCAMORE, and
NO. 1 TABB STREETS,
PETERSBURG, VIRGINIA,

Take pleasure in announcing to the trade that they have in store, ready for exhibition, a large assortment of embracing all articles usually kept in wholesale establishments. Their long business experience with the merchants of Virginia and North Carolina, has made them familiar with their wants; this, together with the advantages they possess in purchasing their supplies, enables them to offer goods at such prices as will insure satisfaction. They specially invite the attention of buyers to their extensive stock of manufactured expressly to their own order, which for style, workmanship and cheapness cannot be surpassed. They would also call attention to a full line of

NEW SPRING GOODS,

READY-MADE CLOTHING;

NOTIONS,

All of which will be offered to purchasers on the very best terms, by Capt. Edward Graham and Mr. John McNeece, who have charge of the department.
